Brendan Kelly

School water reuse

The project will combine with construction of a vegetable garden and a wetland for teaching environmental responsibility.

Ms Braham said the project would provide

The students with a strong example of being

The project can reduce water

The school's working bee and planting day on

There's no beating around the bush for pupils

School's Green scene

The project will encourage a greener, more environmentally friendly school as a classroom, aimed at teaching

Friday, June 19, will be part of a project dubbed

Students, teachers, volunteers, parents and community partners the area to be turned into a

Leadership and environmentally

Community in terms of environmental produce garden (left)

Students, teachers, volunteers, parents and community partners the area to be turned into a

News BRIMBA NEWSWEEKLY.COM.AU